

GARCIA MEDAL

This award highlights an aspiring member's dedication and contributions to ANSO and the Hispanic Community. When selected, they receive the, the prestigious Garcia Medal, in honor of ANSO's First President, CAPT Garcia, USN (Ret.). In general, a committee consisting of the National President and of previous Garcia Medal winners in attendance at the conference will select the winner. The selection process is conducted under the oversight of the ANSO National Board. Nominations, however, are submitted to the National President.

The purpose of the 'Garcia' Medal is to honor members and supporters of ANSO who have distinguished themselves by demonstrating a devotion to serve their fellow brothers and sisters. It carries with it a challenge, to continue to grow their abilities and talents in service to their country and to the Hispanic community. It also requires that each individual will conduct themselves as a professional mariner and leader, always abiding by ANSO Core values of Leadership, Excellence, and Dedication.

The Garcia Medal has been awarded to the following previous recipients:

LCOL Ismeal Ortiz, Jr. USMC
LCDR Edwin Diaz-Rosario, USCG
LT Mike Files, USN
LCDR Mark Venzor, USN
