

United States Navy Biography

FORCM (SW/AW/IW) Jason A. Knupp SEA for OPNAV N17 - Culture and Force Resiliency United States Navy

Master Chief Knupp, a native of Jennerstown, PA, graduated from North Star High School in 1989 and joined the Navy in 1991. His tours included Administrative Support Unit Southwest Asia (ASU SWA) Manama, Bahrain; Personnel Support Activity Detachment (PSD) in Treasure Island, CA and New London, CT; USS Emory S. Land (AS 39), USS Gunston Hall (LSD 44), Expeditionary Strike Group Two (ESG TWO), Commander, Naval Surface Force, Atlantic (COMNAVSURFLANT), and U.S. Naval Forces Central Command (NAVCENT). As a Command Master Chief (CMDCM), he served at Helicopter Maritime Strike Squadron (HSM) 35, Pacific Fleet Chief Petty Officer (PACFLT CPO) Training Team Lead, USS Kearsarge (LHD 3), ESG TWO, Director – Command Senior Enlisted Leader (CSEL) Management Office, and COMNAVSURFLANT Force Master Chief. His current assignment is as the Senior Enlisted Advisor (SEA) for the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations (OPNAV) N17 - Culture and Force Resiliency.

He is proud to have served on teams that have earned the Joint Meritorious Unit Commendation, Navy Unit Commendations, and Navy Battle Effectiveness Award, Battle E's.