

Angelica Killion

Angelica Killion is an Operations & Process Improvement Professional.

Angelica is a naturally curious learner and problem-solver who appreciates the challenge of aligning business processes while taking into consideration their impact on people, planet and profits. She is a co-author of The Hispanic Journey Book: Stories of Leadership, Tenacity and Grit and uses her personal story to motivate and lead others to their own success. As a former small business owner, Angelica coupled her curiosity and Associates Degree in Electronics Engineering to lead a team of Xerox technicians to exceed expectations across multiple counties.

In addition, Angelica is passionate about disaster preparedness and response; she serves as a Program Instructor for two Community Emergency Response Teams. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management and an MBA with a focus on Supply Chain and Operations Management.
